

JOCKEY DUNLOP GETS THE GATE

Will Ride No More at the Marlboro Track.

SPRINGS FROG'S MOUNT IN BAD

Owner Murphy Metes Out Well Deserved Punishment—Campaigner Wins First Race, but Springs Frog Pulls Up Second Best-Ladies' Day a Success at Maryland Meeting.

By O'NEIL SEVIER.

THE Maryland Jockey Club, Oct. 12.—Spring Frog, the Maryland filly, who was handled so badly yesterday by the bush-riding Dunlop that a big crowd expressed astonishment at the failure of Joseph Murphy to take the delinquent black in hand, came back this afternoon with the best race of which she was capable, and Dunlop got the beating. Dunlop did not ride Spring Frog this afternoon. Joe West instructed the Maryland filly to little Wrispen, a promising youngster, and the filly finished a bang-up second to Campaigner, in a race of one mile and twenty yards, for three-year-olds and over. One of the horses she beat was El Oro. The others were Molke, Niblick, Eschau, and Duke of Bridgewater. These are not a bunch of Hindoo or Colpe, mind, but they are shifty horses for these parts, and if Spring Frog had run no better with these than she was permitted by Dunlop to run yesterday, she would have got nothing.

Immediately after the finish Mr. Murphy summoned West and Dunlop into the stewards' stand and, after putting each of them through an indignation, he told Dunlop that he could not ride any more at Marlboro track this fall. Mr. Murphy does not appear to have done anything to West.

By coming back as he did this afternoon Spring Frog stultified the apologists for Dunlop, who attempted yesterday to excuse his ugly ride on the theory that the Maryland filly had had too much of it and had gone stale. Dunlop should have got the gate yesterday. One can follow with the naked eye every move a jockey makes on these half-mile tracks, and if Mr. Murphy did not see what the black jockey did to Spring Frog yesterday he was the only person at the track who did not. The quicker punishment is meted out to evil-doers on the turf the more effective the disciplinary lesson.

Odds on Choice.

Few Eastern turf folks expected to see the day when Campaigner would be an odds-on choice in any kind of race, but such he was this afternoon, and he looked a legitimate 3-to-5 choice before the start.

It was hard to get 1 to 2 on Orville L. Richards' Geraldine colt when the post trumpet sounded.

It was whispered about the track that Spring Frog would wake up to-day, and some of the way went to the Maryland filly for the place and to show, at 2 and 2 1/2 to 1 and 3 to 10. Most of the place money, however, was for El Oro, at 8 to 10 and even. Molke got a little consideration, but the others were not wanted at any price. Campaigner showed more early footwork than was his wont. He took the lead in the backstretch the first time around, and opening a big gap, held his advantage to the end. Stanley Davis had to drive him a bit in the last furlong, but that was not an unusual proceeding with Campaigner. He is a bit of a loafer, and he does not do more than he has to.

Spring Frog was the contender for the last three-quarters of a mile, and he beat El Oro as easily for the place as he was beaten by Campaigner for first money.

Jockey Shoemaker, the lad who got a fall in the first turn Saturday, did not manage El Oro well. He pulled the Elizabeth colt up going to the first turn without sufficient cause, and rode him with ease the balance of the way. Shoemaker's fall evidently cost him something in nerve.

This was ladies' day at the track, and the grandstand was filled with the fair sex. Pretty women gathered from Baltimore, Washington, and Maryland towns and villages about Marlboro to pay honor to the thoroughbreds, and James McLaughlin, easily the handsomest trainer at the track, and a dresser, felt that it was up to him to do his part. Weather and track conditions smiled, and McLaughlin won three purses. H. Forester, a half-brother to Pauntleroy, by Wild Mint, the son of Sweepaway, was his first winner; Campaigner his second, and Dress Parade his third. Campaigner, as already related, bore the silks of Orville L. Richards, but the other two won under the silks of Mr. McLaughlin himself.

Forester Shows Class.

Forester had good luck this afternoon, and he showed a bit of class. He stepped to the front on the rail in the dash out of the chute and, opening a gap of two or three lengths on Jack Bourdette, held that shifty son of Solitaire II and Center Tip safe all the way, winning 1-100, which was not bad time for a half mile track. Clements rode Jack Bourdette weakly in the early furlongs of this race, but he put up an energetic finish. Mr. Murphy gave him a bit of talking to about rough riding. Mariner was outrun in the first half, but he closed stoutly through the stretch and managed to land show money.

Clement rode Dress Parade II in the fifth, a six and one-half furlong dash, for three-year-olds and over, and won handsomely with the son of Woolsthorpe and Lady Prim. The other starters were Footpad, Black Branch, Horace E. Beth Goodwin, and Silverine, and Dress Parade was always the popular choice. Very little of 8 to 1 was laid about him, and 7 to 5 was made to get at post time. There was some money for Silverine and Beth Goodwin at 4 to 1 each, and a little for Horace E. at 9 to 2, but these horses were played principally for the place.
